BEFORE YOUR TEA PARTY

- Date / time: Think carefully about the date so it doesn't clash with any national or local events.
- Venue: This could be your own home or a village hall.
 If using a public venue, make sure to check on any licences you might need.
- Promotion: Create some posters and leaflets so you can advertise your tea party locally. We have some templates you can use on our resources page. Make the most of social media and create an event on Facebook or promote it on the local community pages. Try contacting your local newspaper and radio.
- Goal / target: Try giving yourself a target of how much you want to raise – this could help you get extra donations from people who want to help you reach your target. Think about how you can make the most of the event to raise as much as you can.

 Support: As it's for a great cause, speak to local businesses who may like to donate some delicious treats or other goodies? It's always worth asking and you never know who you speak to, as they may go on to support Combat Stress in other ways too.

AT YOUR TEA PARTY >>>

 Fundraising: Try to include fun games or activities to raise extra money. 'Guess the weight of the cake' is often popular or host a tea-tasting. Make sure you have plenty of options for people to give, including buckets/ tins or links to your own fundraising page to encourage donations. • Awareness: If you are comfortable with speaking, try to plan a moment to say a few words about why you support Combat Stress so people understand the difference their support makes. Make sure you have plenty of literature for people to pick up too.

AFTER YOUR TEA PARTY

- Banking: Count, record and send us the money you raise as soon as you can. See 'Paying in money' for the different ways to do this. It's a good idea to share responsibility for this amongst more than one person and to prepare in advance by getting some money bags from the bank.
- Thanking: Remember to follow up with guests and anyone who has supported the event to thank them and let them know how much was raised to help veterans' mental health.

TOP TIPS >>>

- Food and drink: If you're selling treats it's essential to label things for allergens. Always visit the Food Standards Agency for advice.
- Let us know: Tell us about your tea party so we can support and advise if needed – we'd love to hear all about it!
- Social media: Keep pushing it out with regular updates, it often takes a few times before people take notice. And remember to tag us so we can see what you're up to and say thank you!

Licences: Check for any licences you need.
 For example, selling alcohol and playing music both require a licence.

KEEPING IT SAFE AND LEGAL

 It's important that you are safe and legal whilst fundraising in aid of Combat Stress.
 Please follow our 'Keeping it Safe and Legal' guidance document.
