

HOW TO HOLD A
PAMPER EVENING

COMBAT STRESS

Pamper evenings are a super way to get family, friends or colleagues together to raise money for veterans' mental health whilst relaxing and enjoying some chilled out pamper time.

BEFORE YOUR PAMPER EVENING

DATE / TIME:

These events work best perhaps mid-week when there isn't much else happening and there is the opportunity to just relax. Unless you want to include a little tippie and liven it up afterwards with a party then maybe stick to a weekend date.

VENUE:

This works well from the comfort of your own home or perhaps a village hall or local hotel or spa. If using a public venue, make sure to check on any licences you might need.

PROMOTION:

Write an invite list and get invitations sent out as soon as you have a date. You can buy pre-made invite cards or design your own hard copies to post or hand out. Alternatively design your own digital invites to email. Make the most of social media and create an event on Facebook and invite your friends/contact.

GOAL / TARGET:

Try giving yourself a target of how much you want to raise – this could get extra donations from people who want to help you reach your target.

BOOK THE PAMPERING:

Book local therapists and hairdressers for manicures, massages, waxing, facial masks, pedicures, and more. Also try health and beauty Reps (Body Shop, Avon, Younique etc) who offer demos at parties.

PRIZES:

See if you can source some prizes for a raffle or games – as it's for a great cause, speak to local businesses who may like to donate items.

AT YOUR PAMPER EVENING

HELPERS:

Could you enrol a friend to help set-up products, prepare food, decoration, games, music, and of course clearing up.

DECORATION:

Either go modest or go all out – your pamper evening, your way! Make sure you go for a relaxed vibe with plenty of cushions and candles! We have plenty of Combat Stress branded items you can use too if you wanted to put out some literature.

FUNDRAISING:

Decide whether you want to charge an entry donation for the pamper evening. Try to think of relaxed games or activities to raise extra money, with some great winning prizes. Make sure you have plenty of options for people to donate such as our cardboard collection boxes.

AWARENESS:

If you are comfortable with speaking, try to plan a moment to say a few words about why you support Combat Stress so people understand the difference their support makes to veterans and their families. Make sure you have plenty of literature for people to pick up too.

AFTER YOUR PAMPER EVENING

BANKING:

Count, record and send us the money you raise as soon as you can. See 'Paying in money' for the different ways to do this. It's a good idea to share responsibility for this amongst more than one person and to prepare in advance by getting some money bags from the bank.

THANKING:

Remember to follow up with guests and anyone who has supported the event to thank them and let them know how much was raised. We will always ensure a 'thank you' letter is sent to you too.

TOP TIPS

FOOD AND DRINK:

If you're offering food or drink, please consider guests who may have allergies or special diets. Always visit the Food Standards Agency for advice.

LET US KNOW:

Tell us about your pamper evening so we can support and advise if needed – we'd love to hear all about it!

DOUBLE YOUR MONEY:

Do you or any of your helpers work for a company that offers 'matched giving' for charity? If so, encourage them to apply and you can double the amount you raise!

PAYING IN MONEY

There are lots of ways to pay in money. Please include your supporter number (if known), your name as a reference, and information about the donation.
